The twelve Minor Prophets are just as important and perfectly inspired and preserved as the four Major Prophets. They are called “Minor” because they are shorter in content compared to the Major Prophets. However, the timespan of the Minor Prophets is major – from the 9th to 5th century BC, ie from the period of the kings to the rebuilding of the temple, city of Jerusalem and restoration of the national witness of Israel. These twelve amazing books reveal a loving and merciful God who not only loved Israel but also the whole world.

We shall study these twelve books in two parts over two semesters in order to do justice to these theologically rich wells of living water! Through the study, we shall know our heavenly Father better. We shall discover His prophecies and judgements, and how longsuffering He is as He dealt with a rebellious people and a world dying in sin. The understanding of these books will also provide additional light to the period of the kings and books such as Ezra, Nehemiah and Esther.

Biblical covenants are unique. There is nothing like it in the pagan world and they are not bilateral like a contract. In His covenants, God declares His gracious provision of redemption, His spiritual and physical promises, and His unbreakable relationship with believers. God is bound to His people through His covenants. In the divine covenants we find the unifying principles of the Bible, and in understanding them we see the continuity of God’s redemptive plan for man.

This course will provide students with a proper understanding of the nature, function, and purpose of the divine covenants in the Bible. Studying it will help us grow in our personal relationship with God.

Eschatology concerns the study of the last things or the end times which includes the second coming of Christ, life after death, heaven and hell.

Does the Bible give any indication on when the Lord will return? What is the Great Tribulation? Will Christians go through the Great Tribulation? What is the Rapture? Who is the Antichrist? What is Armageddon and where will it take place? What is the Millennium? Is the nation of Israel still very much a part of God’s redemptive plan or has Israel been replaced by the Church? What happens after a person dies? What is heaven like? What is hell like? If you want to know the future, you will want to take this course.
